WANTED BY THE FALL RIVER POLICE DEPARTMENT

On February 19, 2004, Fall River Police responded to a call concerning a shooting at a local McDonalds. Upon their arrival they discovered three suspects suffering from gunshot wounds, all three suspects were taken to the emergency room and would survive their injuries. The police investigation revealed that during a near miss, minor traffic accident in the parking lot PERALTA who was the passenger in one of the vehicles began yelling at the driver of the other car. Without provocation PERALTA then removed a firearm from his sweatshirt pocket and began shooting at close range at the driver and passengers of the second car. Two of the suspects in the car with PERALTA at the time were later apprehended but PERALTA remains at large. Warrant number 0632CR001328 was issued out of Fall River District Court to the Fall River Police Department for the arrest of PERALTA.
